23 Defendant Ye Teng Wen has been supervised in this District for approaching three years.
24 He has requested permission to travel to China in order to participate in the examination and 25 purchase of industrial equipment for his employer, as well as training on the use of that
26 equipment. He plans to fly from San Francisco to Shanghai on United Airlines on March 15,
Shanghai on April 15, 2013.

The assigned Probation Officer, Barry Fisher, has informed defense counsel that he does not oppose this request. Mr. Wen has performed well on supervision and has incurred no known violations. His mandatory assessment fee is paid in full and he has been in full compliance with his payment schedule on the fine imposed at sentencing. In addition, he has maintained

1 employment throughout supervision.

2 Mr. Wen was previously represented by appointed counsel. The Federal Public Defender
3 has not been appointed to represent him, but asks to be permitted to file this stipulation on his
4 behalf as a matter of administrative convenience.
